Celebrating the King

The Solemnity of Christ the King seems at times to be out of place in democratic societies. If a king is understood to be one who rules with absolute power, this image runs counter to what we consider the ideal government. The readings of this Sunday use the image of a king, but with a twist. The king as presented in both 2 Samuel and Luke is far from the despot who rules with absolute power.

In 2 Samuel we see the elders anointing David as king over Israel. David was chosen to be a king who would act as shepherd of the people — to protect and care for the flock, assuring their life and safety. David's kingship was not about personal power but about guaranteeing that the people of Israel would live and proclaim the power of God.

The Gospel scene that proclaims the kingship of Jesus is, surprisingly, the crucifixion. Only on the cross is Jesus proclaimed king. This is neither a scene of power for himself nor glory from a human perspective. It is in his utter helplessness that Jesus is recognized as king, and in this moment, Jesus thinks not of himself but of another.

This Sunday we celebrate a king whose life was centred on caring for others, offering life to others. This image of Christ as king is one that every Christian is invited to imitate.

Mass online: As we gather at home for our Sunday Mass celebrations online, some suggestions that might help our prayer-time:

- Create a sacred space where you will sit to attend Mass e.g. using a crucifix or candle or icon, just like you might do if preparing for a house Mass.
- Invite family members to name a prayer intention that everyone will pray for during the Mass.
- Stand to hear the Gospel or to join in praying the Our Father, just like you would in church.

We are reminded of the words of Jesus - 'Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst' – We remember that Jesus Christ is present in our homes as we pray at Mass together.

Beyond life's struggle now

*How the season change,
how certain it is that summer gives way to autumn,
and the falling of the leaves
and the passing of so many things,
and the tears of one who grieves.
Yet winter gives way to spring,
new hope and life after suffering.*

*Lord, so it is,
and as certain too the promise
of new life in you
after life's woes and pains.
For our loved ones gone
no more strains and suffering now,
beyond life's struggle
there awaits the joy of your embrace.*

Thank you, Lord.

Amen.
