Good Samaritan” to neighbour’s cat

Little Tim was in the garden filling a hole when his neighbour peered over the fence. Interested in what the youngster was doing, he politely asked, “What are you up to there, Tim?” “My goldfish died,” replied Tim tearfully, without looking up, “and I’ve just buried him.” The neighbour said, “That’s an awfully big hole for a goldfish, isn’t it, Tim?” Tim patted down the last heap of earth, and then replied, “That’s because he’s still inside your stupid cat.”

Playing Out The Good Samaritan

Let us remember that the road from Jerusalem to Jericho passes right through our home, parish, school, and workplace. We may find our spouse, children or parents lying “wounded” by bitter words or scathing criticism or by other more blatant forms of verbal, emotional or physical abuse. Hence, Jesus invites us to show our love to others, in our own home, in school, in the workplace, and in the neighbourhood, as the Good Samaritan did.

Let us check to see if we are good neighbours. We become good neighbours when we are people of generosity, kindness, and mercy toward all who are suffering. Our sincere smile, a cheery greeting, an encouraging word of appreciation, a heartfelt “thank you” can all work wonders for a suffering soul.

Let us allow the “Good Samaritans” to touch our lives. Let us be willing to touch, or be touched by, persons we have once despised. For some of us, it may be persons of another colour or race; for others, it may mean persons of a different political persuasion.

Let us pray that the Spirit of the Living God may melt us, mould us, and use us, so that there will no longer be even one person who is untouchable or outside the boundaries of compassion.

Let us accept the invitation to be loving and merciful to our enemies. This means people we hate, as well as those who hate us. It is an invitation for people of all times to love their enemies—to love those they have previously hated.

Lord,

open my eyes to see the needs of my neighbour:

To see that charity is patient and kind.

I must not allow my judgemental attitudes to kill sympathy and pity.

To see that charity is not arrogant or rude,

I must recognise how much in need I am myself and how dependent on others' love.

To see that charity bears, believes, hopes, and endures all things,

I must be ready to bear the burdens of others with trust and perseverance.

Increase my faith, strengthen my hope, and deepen my love for you and neighbour. Amen
