Three surprises in Heaven

Venerable Bishop Fulton J. Sheen tells us that we will have three surprises in Heaven. The first surprise: We will be surprised to see that many people we expected to be in Heaven are not there. St. John of the Cross gives the reason why they are not there: "At the evening of our life, we shall be judged on how we have loved." The second surprise: We will be surprised to see that the people we never expected to be in Heaven are there. That is because God judges man's intentions and rewards them accordingly. The third surprise: We will be surprised to see that we are in Heaven! Since our getting to Heaven is principally God's work, we should be surprised that God somehow "went out of His way" to save us, simply because we showed the good will and generosity to cooperate with His grace.

As he continues his fateful journey to Jerusalem, Jesus answers the question as to how many will be saved by answering how to enter into salvation and how urgent it is to strive now, before the Master closes the door. Jesus explains who will be saved, how, why, and when, and Jesus tells them that anyone who follows him through the narrow gate of sacrificial serving and sharing love will be saved. Jesus also warns his followers to concentrate on their own salvation instead of worrying about the salvation of others.

Lord

You assure us that all peoples will have a place in the heavenly banquet you prepare for those who believe in you.

Your saving will, is universal, and you enrich with your grace and blessing all who turn to you.

Grant that we may follow your commandments, which will guide us to the narrow door that leads into your kingdom.

*When we appear before you as Judge, may we not hear those awful words
'Away from me, you wicked ones'*

May we accept the negative and painful things of life as coming from a caring Father.

*In our moments of doubt, weakness,
and discouragement,
hold up our limp arms,
steady our trembling knees,
and smooth our path,
so that we may persevere on the journey that leads to the rewards you have promised.*

Amen.

Last weekend's collection - €820.00
