Palm Sunday

Thirty pieces of silver. It was a tidy sum and easy to come by. All he had to do was to lead the Jewish guards to where Jesus was spending the night. Judas reassured himself that he was not doing anything illegal. In fact, he had the law on his side. Anyway, if Jesus were as powerful as he claimed to be, he should be well able to look after himself. If he were not, then he was an impostor and should be removed for the common good. Besides, the authorities would arrest him eventually so he might as well have the thirty pieces of silver as anybody else.

All in all, Judas reasoned, you have to take your chances, to get on in life. He would look after himself and let the others do the same. One cannot look after everybody. There was a niggling doubt that betraying a man was wrong, but Judas quickly smothered that thought. He made his choice. He probably did not foresee all the consequences of his actions and, as we read in today's gospel, his regret-filled suicide did nothing to undo the damage he had caused.

Many of us have Judas' moments in our lives.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Sunday April 16th is Divine Mercy Sunday. This was instituted by Pope John Paul II. He wanted the world to call on Divine Mercy. St. Faustina felt the call to Divine Mercy and created the image. The Divine Mercy chaplet is recited by many people on a daily basis. On April 16th at 3:00p.m. in Milltown church you are invited to come to celebrate Divine Mercy. Confessions will begin at 2:00 p.m. Looking forward to seeing you.
