

St. Colman's Parish
Easter Sunday
8th /9th April 2023

Easter Blessing

Blessing of Joy and Hope be with all your families at this time. Let this be a time for a new beginning. The message of Easter is about Faith and Hope in the future. Let it be a time of renewal in our Faith.

As Parish Priest I have the privilege of being with families for, Masses, Baptisms, Weddings, Communion and Confirmations. I have been with people in times of bereavement and anointed the sick, bestowing on them, the Lord's healing grace. I have been encouraged and strengthened in my faith as I witnessed the faith of people.

Let us always appreciate the Lord is with us in our worries and troubles, giving us hope each day.

May the light of the new Easter candle glow in all of our hearts.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Sunday April 16th is Divine Mercy Sunday. This was instituted by Pope John Paul II. He wanted the world to call on Divine Mercy. St. Faustina felt the call to Divine Mercy and created the image. The Divine Mercy chaplet is recited by many people on a daily basis. On April 16th at 3:00p.m. in Milltown church you are invited to come to celebrate Divine Mercy. Confessions will begin at 2:00 p.m. Looking forward to seeing you.

Father, forgive them for they know not what they do.
Many people heard these extraordinary words, but only one person responded to them.

He was a criminal, crucified next to Jesus.

We can imagine that the mercy of Christ stirred up in him one last hope and led him to speak these words:

‘Jesus, remember me’ (Lk23:42).

As if to say: ‘Everyone else has forgotten me, yet you keep thinking of those who crucify you.

With you, then, there is also a place for me’.

The good thief accepted God as his life was ending, and in this way, his life began anew.

In the hell of this world, he saw heaven opening up: ‘today you will be with me in Paradise’ (v.43).

This is the marvel of God’s forgiveness, which turned the last request of a man condemned to death into the first canonization of history.
