The common theme of our Scripture readings is the work God gives us to do as the followers of Jesus: to love God and our brothers and sisters through hospitality, generosity, commitment, and charity. They also remind us of the sacrifice demanded of Jesus' disciples and the suffering they will endure for their Faith when they bear witness to him.

The vow of hospitality made by the Little Sisters of the Poor:

By our vow of hospitality, we promise God to consecrate ourselves exclusively to the service of the elderly poor. We welcome them into our homes, form one family with them, accompany them from day to day and care for them with love and respect until God calls them home. Through our vow of hospitality the Church has given us a mandate to prolong Christ's mission of charity—to convey to the elderly, in the concrete realities of everyday life, the kindness and love of God for them, his eldest children. Consecrated hospitality is a witness to the mercy and compassionate love of the heart of Jesus. It is based on the words of Christ himself: "Blessed are the merciful, for they will obtain mercy" (Mt 5:7). "I was hungry, and you gave me food, I was thirsty, and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me ... sick and you visited me.... Truly I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me" (Mt 25:35–40). Our foundress, Saint Jeanne Jugan, echoed these words of our Lord as she often said, "Never forget that the poor are Our Lord. In caring for the poor say to yourself: This is for my Jesus—what a great grace! As Hospitaller religious our lives are made up of many humble, hidden tasks. We serve the elderly day and night, striving to meet their physical needs, to make them happy, and to minister to them spiritually. We accomplish our mission together as a community, each one bringing her gifts and talents to the work of hospitality. The accompaniment and care of the dying is the summit of our vocation. In today's world it is an ever more powerful witness of the culture of life. By the look in his eyes or by the silence of his whole being, the elderly person who is near death asks us this question: "Does my life still have any value? Is it worth living?" To each person we respond with a resounding yes! Thanks to Saint Jeanne Jugan's presence among us, we continue her spirit as we pursue our mission of hospitality today.
