

St. Colman's Parish
Sixth Sunday of Easter
4th /5th May 2024

She doesn't know me, but I still know who she is.

It was a busy morning, about 8:30, when a gentleman in his 80's arrived to have stitches removed from his thumb. He said he was in a hurry as he had an appointment at 9:00 am. The nurse took his vital signs and had him take a seat. Knowing it would be over an hour before someone would be able to see him, and since he, himself, was not busy, the nurse took time to evaluate the man's wound. The wound was well healed, so he talked to one of the doctors, got the needed supplies to remove his sutures and redress his wound. While taking care of his wound, the nurse asked his patient if he had another doctor's appointment as he was in such a hurry. The gentleman said that he needed to go to the nursing home to eat breakfast with his wife. In answer to the nurse's question about her health, the old man responded that she had been there for a while and that she was a victim of Alzheimer's disease. When the nurse asked if she would be upset if he was a bit late, he replied that she no longer knew who he was, that she had not recognised him in five years now. The nurse was surprised, and asked him why, if his wife didn't know who he was, he went every morning faithfully for the breakfast. The old man smiled and said, "She doesn't know me, but I still know who she is." The nurse with tears in the eyes said to himself, "That is the kind of love I want in my life." — True love is neither physical, nor romantic. True love is an acceptance of all that is, has been, will be, and will not be. In today's Gospel, Jesus commands, us to practice this type of sacrificial and selfless agápe love as he practiced it.

From the traditional chant for the Washing of the Feet, Mass of the Lord's Supper:

UBI caritas et amor, Deus ibi est. Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor. Exulemus, et in ipso iucundemur. Timeamus, et amemus Deum vivum. Et ex corde diligamus nos sincero. — WHERE charity and love are, God is there. Christ's love has gathered us into one. Let us rejoice and be pleased in Him. Let us fear and let us love the living God. And may we love each other with a sincere heart.
