

St. Colman's Parish
The Ascension of the Lord
31st May/1st June 2025

We all need anchors in our lives
By way of true values and enduring truths.
But we need anchors other than principles.

We need relationships with other people.

People who have never known a close relationship

with another human being are anchorless.

They are at the mercy of the cold winds of anguish and loneliness.

But the best anchor of all is the anchor of faith.

It means we have truths to believe in

And a Person to relate to, namely, God.

We can make our own the beautiful words of Mary:

‘My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,
And my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour.
The Almighty has done great things for me.
Holy is his name.’

The day of the Lord's triumphant return to his Father is not a day for narrowness or sadness.

Rather it is a day for openness and joy.

Therefore, let us lift our hearts.

Let us raise up your minds.

Let our spirits soar and be free.

For sin and evil and death have been overcome.

We know nothing of the mystery of the beyond.

All we have is his word: 'Where I am, you too will be.'

Lord, you have kindled in our hearts the hope of eternal life.

And bring it to fulfilment in the Kingdom of Heaven.
