On the ninth trip around the block, there it was!

A comical, but illustrative, story shows us how adept we are at rationalising our actions: A very overweight man decided that it was time to shed a few pounds. He went on a new diet and took it seriously. He even changed his usual driving route to the office in order to avoid his favourite bakery. One morning, however, he arrived at the office carrying a large, sugar-coated coffee cake. His office mates roundly chided him, but he only smiled, shrugged his shoulders and said, "What could I do? This is a very special cake. This morning, from force of habit, I accidentally drove by my favourite bakery. There in the window were trays of the most delicious goodies. I felt that it was no accident that I happened to pass by, so I prayed, 'Lord, if you really want me to have one of these delicious coffee cakes, let me find a parking place in front of the bakery.' Sure enough, on the ninth trip around the block, there it was!" — Temptation is strong, but we must be stronger. We should not tempt fate, and we should not rationalise our actions.

Every one of us is tempted to seek sinful pleasures, easy wealth, and a position of authority, power, and glory, and to use any means, even unjust or sinful ones, to gain these things. Jesus serves as a model for us in conquering temptations by strengthening himself through prayer, penance, and the active use of the Word of God. Temptations make us more powerful warriors of God by strengthening our minds and hearts. By constantly struggling against temptations, we become stronger. Each time one is tempted to do evil but does good, one becomes stronger. Further, we are never tempted beyond our power. In his first letter, St. John assures us: "Greater is the One Who is in us, than the one who is in the world (1 Jn 4: 4).

Samaritans of Kerry: sincerely thank the parishioners for their continued support of the Christmas collection, which is greatly appreciated. The amount collected in Milltown was €813.25.

Continued.....

We may be strengthened by St. Paul's words in 1 Cor 10:13: "No testing has overtaken you, that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and [God] will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing [God] will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it." Hence, during this Lent, let us confront our evil tendencies by prayer (especially by participating in the Holy Mass), by penance, and by meditative reading of the Bible.

Lord Jesus, as I begin the desert journey of Lent give me strength and courage. Lead me through these days of prayer and penance in such a way that I may worthily come to the celebration of your saving death and glorious resurrection. Stay with me in time of temptation. Do not allow me to give way to greed but lead me to generous service. Preserve me from vanity and self-glory, and make me humble of heart. Save me from false pride, let me be obedient to your will Amen.
