The Most Holy

Trinity

30th/31st May 2026

Trinity Sunday Year A invites us to reflect on the mystery of God's unity. God is one but exists in three persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This mystery is difficult to understand fully, as our human minds cannot grasp the full depth of this truth. We are asked not to fully comprehend it, but to accept it as part of our faith. This is a central teaching in the Church, one that shapes how we relate to God.

The most important thing about the Trinity is the perfect unity between the three persons. Even though they are distinct from one another, they share the same nature and work together in harmony. There is no conflict, no separation, only perfect love and unity. This unity is not forced; it flows naturally from the very nature of God. It is a model for us in how we should live with one another.

In our own lives, we are called to reflect the unity of the Trinity. Just as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are united in love, we are called to love one another. This love should not be based on what we get from others, but on a deeper connection that reflects God's love. Working together in unity, especially in the Church, is part of our response to this mystery. It means putting aside our personal desires to serve the greater good of others.

The unity of the Trinity challenges us to overcome division in our own lives. Whether in our families, workplaces, or communities, God's love calls us to build unity and peace. It asks us to recognize that we are all connected, and that unity in love is the foundation of a healthy relationship with God and each other.

Prayer

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, thank You for revealing Yourself to us in Your perfect unity.

Help us to reflect Your love and unity in our lives, working together in peace and faith. Empower us to live out the grace and love You give, sharing it with everyone we meet.

Amen.

As students prepare for their Leaving Certificate exams, we keep them in our thoughts and prayers. May they be blessed with calm hearts, clear minds, confidence in their abilities, and the strength to do their best.

Prayer for Students Preparing for the Leaving Cert

*O Holy Spirit, help me to study well and to pass my examinations.
Be my strength, grant me understanding,
give me your gift of wisdom.*

*When I was confirmed,
I received these gifts of fortitude,
understanding and wisdom.*

*I now ask you to make them ever more active in my life,
So that my mind attains the clarity
I so badly need these days.*

Spirit of understanding and enlightenment, teach me. Amen
