A Message from Deacon Linus*:*

Sunday (8th November) marks the first anniversary of my ordination as Deacon. On behalf of my wife, children, mother, and myself, I would like to thank everyone in the parish for the kindness, support, and encouragement you have shown me throughout this past year.

To all who attended my ordination, and to everyone who sent cards, good wishes, and prayers, the generosity and goodwill shown to me and my family will always be remembered.

It is often said that a vocation is nurtured within a community, and I know that to be true. I have been blessed by the support, friendship, and faith of the people of this parish.

A special word of thanks to the Deacons and Priests of our Pastoral Area for their guidance, friendship, and unwavering support during my training and throughout this first year of ministry.

With every blessing,
Deacon Linus.

Second Collection this weekend 7th & 8th November: Irish Church Commissions & Bishop Agencies: This collection supports the work of the Irish Bishops' Conference and its agencies in areas such as marriage and family life, Catholic education, catechetics, liturgy, and the sacraments. It helps dioceses work together and supports the Church's mission at a national level.
